

NANCY WYNNE CHATS OF MANY THINGS WHICH INTEREST US

The Samuel D. Riddles' Ball at the Ritz-Carlton Tonight Will Be the Biggest Affair of the Early Week. Miss Elizabeth Norris Is Honor Guest

COURSE the event of the day or rather night will be the Riddles' ball at the Ritz-Carlton for Lisa Norris. Riddle you know was Miss Elizabeth Dobson, a first cousin of Lisa's mother who was Miss Maria Johnson. Lisa is greatly liked by her various relations who seem to be doing all they can to make her first winter in society a happy one, and from all I hear, it has been. Lisa is extremely attractive and a general favorite, so that entertainments are by no means needed to help her have a good time, for she would have one any how, but it is always nice for her to be invited to have a number of things given for her and so we are all going tonight to enjoy it with her. I hear there have been more than a thousand invites issued and music and "entertainment" for all ages and conditions, so that if you don't want to dance you have only to leave the ballroom for another room nearby, where you'll be entertained with a buffet supper and special orchestra. And as for the cats themselves, they are to be wonderful, so Dame Rumor has it. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle are charming hosts and it will surely be a good party.

There will be a number of dinners before the ball. The Tom Ashtons will give one on Emma Dorr, who is Dr. Ashton's niece. She came out last winter and is very charming. Then the J. R. Evans Roberts will also entertain at dinner and so will Mrs. J. Gardner Cassatt and the George McFaddens.

I met Brooke Edwards yesterday afternoon, and was quite startled as I thought he was already on the briny deep. His boat was to have sailed on Saturday, he told me, but was held up and now it is scheduled to depart on Wednesday afternoon. Gray Dayton is going from here also. It is a mighty fine thing to do and will certainly make strong men of them. The sight of such plucky soldiers must surely have a great effect upon young America. Brooke you know lived in Paris for several years and was at school in Switzerland, so he has long ago mastered the French language and that will make him useful at once. They are to sail on the Rochambeau which docks at Boulogne and then they will proceed by train to Paris, he tells me; they expect to stay in Paris about a month to get into practice with the Ambulance Corps and then they will be sent out to active work on the front. Brooke says he will probably stay at least a year, and Ted, his brother, is talking of going over to join him in the summer. They are the sons of the late Richard S. Edwards. Their mother was Miss Lucy Neilson. It really is funny how much a simple childish play affects people, and I could not help being amused last night at "Pollyanna" to see so many people wiping their eyes, and at one time several sobbed out loud; and afterward, when we were going home the comments and the searchings for something for each one to be glad about. We are an impressionable nation without doubt, and sometimes a fresh, simple little play hits just the right spot. There were lots of people I knew there last night. The Joe Du Barrys chartered a box party in which were Margot Scull, Gertrude Heckscher, Harry Geyelin, Saunders Meade and several others I could not recognize from where I was; then others in the audience were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pepper, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Foulke, Mrs. Charles West Churchman, Emily Claxton, Emily Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Winter and ever so many others.

The Alliance Francaise was very interesting last night, and never have there been so many debutantes at any meeting, many of them having recitations to make. Olivia Gazdam was as cute as a poem; she was supposed to recite a poem, and evidently got scared or really forgot; anyway, she wobbled through the beginning and then snapped her small fingers despairingly and was about to sit down, but not a bit of it. M. Giroud critically remarked, "You must do it," and handed her the poem which she then proceeded to read very well.

NANCY WYNNE. The wedding of Miss Elea de B. Lennie and Mr. Harold Macaulay took place very quietly today at noon in St. Martin's Episcopal Church, Oak Lane. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Jordan, rector of the church. There were no attendants, only the immediate families being present. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue. After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rowland, in Abington. Mrs. Macaulay is the daughter of Mrs. John B. Lennie, of the Rittenhouse, New York City. She has two sisters. The eldest, Miss Maude Lennie, married Major Robert Hawkes, of the English army, last year, and Mrs. Benjamin Rowland, it will be remembered, was Miss Louise Lennie. Mr. Macaulay is the son of the late Rear Admiral Edward Yorke Macaulay, U. S. N. Mr. and Mrs. Macaulay will leave for New York this afternoon to be gone some time on a wedding trip. Mrs. Alexander Brinton Cox, of 1829 South Rittenhouse Square, will entertain at luncheon and cards today. Mrs. T. DeWitt Cuyler and the Misses Cuyler, of 18th and Locust streets, will receive formally on Wednesday in February after 4 o'clock. No cards have been sent out.

A dance for the benefit of the German-Low Hospital will be given tonight at the Ritz-Carlton. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Baltzar de Mare, Mrs. Arthur H. Hays Sulzberger, Mrs. Alexander W. Walters, Jr., Mrs. George A. Cameron, Mrs. Francis H. Strawbridge, Miss Abbott, Miss Logan and Mrs. Edward J. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. William Findlay Brown will entertain at dinner tonight. Mrs. George Merriam Coates and Mrs. Joseph L. Phillips will be at home informally this afternoon at 1738 Pine street. No cards have been sent out.

General Edward de V. Morrell is spending several days at the Traymore in Atlantic City. On Saturday evening a linen shower was given by Miss Helen Hewes, of Darby, for Miss Anna V. Powell, whose engagement was recently announced to Mr. William Hechtel, of Sharon Hill. Mrs. Frances R. Livingston and Miss Marion E. Livingston, of Locust street, have returned home from Baltimore, where they spent several days. Mrs. Joseph Boyd Baker, of the Covington, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ellen Rutter Baker, to Mr. Maurice W. Wiley, formerly of Baltimore. Mrs. Baker and Miss Baker are spending the month of February at Summerville, S. C.

Along the Main Line. ARDMORE—Mr. and Mrs. William Ott, of Mill road, spent the weekend at the home of their daughter, Miss Sylvia Ott, at the George School. Miss Ott took the part of the young lady in "My Heart," which was given Saturday night by the senior class. BRYN MAWR—Miss Marie Louise Gile, of Saratford road, entertained at dinner recently in honor of Miss M. M. Elizabeth Suddards, of Overbrook. The guests included Miss Helen Hunsell, of Haverford, and Miss Eleanor Rushton, of Wynnewood. Miss Gile, who is a popular member of the younger set, will be one of next season's debutantes. ROSEMONT—Mrs. Alba B. Johnson, of Montgomery avenue, returned yesterday from New Orleans, where she has been spending a week. ST. DAVIDS—Mrs. Richard McSherry has returned home after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin H. Wilbur, at Old Stone House, Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Grieb, of St. David's road, will leave today for Bermuda to stay several weeks. The young women of the Westminster Guild will give a play, followed by tableaux, in the room of the Radnor Presbyterian Church, on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Catlin, of St. David's road, are spending several weeks in Augusta, Ga. WAYNE—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dougherty, of Oak Lane, are spending some weeks in Sarasota, Fla. Mrs. Albert E. Ackerman, of Lancaster avenue, is visiting at her former home in Chicago. The Men's Club of Wayne will hold their meeting in the Saturday Clubhouse tonight. Captain Charles E. Kilburne, U. S. N., will speak on "The Necessity of Military Preparedness."

Germantown. Miss Helen V. Whitridge, of Baltimore, Md., is the guest of Miss Catherine Cooper Cassard, 333 Pelham road. Miss Whitridge came up for the ball which Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler gave for their daughter last Friday night. An informal piano recital was given at the Conservatory of Music, 109 West Chelten avenue, on Sunday afternoon, from 4 until 5:30 o'clock, by Mr. Edward Royce, director of the Middleburg College, Vermont. Mr. Royce is the son of Prof. Josiah Royce, of Harvard, and a brother-in-law of Miss Dorothy Randolph, whose marriage to Mr. John Kenneth Bigard took place on Saturday. The artistically rendered program on Sunday included Fantasia in C major, opus 37, Schumann; three numbers by Grieg, three by Brahms and one of Mr. Royce's own compositions, which was received with great enthusiasm. A few of the close friends of Mrs. Nathaniel Archer Randolph and her brother, Mr. Francis Head, were invited to an afternoon of rare musical enjoyment. An attractive sale of home-made cakes, candies, preserves and useful articles will be held on Saturday from 10 in the morning until the afternoon at the Fairfax hotel, Wayne avenue and School House lane. Tea will be served from 4 until 6 o'clock. The proceeds will be used for the Pastoral Aid Fund of the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. John Friebach Keator, of West Walnut lane, sailed a few days ago for an extended trip through South America. Mrs. Keator will attend the religious conference in Panama and accompany Bishop Sheppard's party. They will visit points along the western coast of South America and return by way of Buenos Aires. A quiet wedding took place on Saturday evening when Miss Laura Rebecca Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edmund Wright, of 5434 Morris street, became the bride of Mr. Clarence Herbert Frick. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Ogle Warfield. After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Frick will reside at 5434 Morris street. Miss Katherine McK. Quin, who has been visiting in New York, has returned to her home, 261 West Walnut lane.

West Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh, of 2023 North 33rd street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Saturday. The little girl will be named Margaret Mary. Mr. and Mrs. William Bird, of 853 North 56th street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Helen Bird. Mrs. William Wheeler, of 1509 North 57th street, left today for Irvington, N. Y., to be the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Melville. On her way home Mrs. Wheeler will spend a few days in Newark, the guest of Mrs. R. Ahi. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Watson will give a card party tomorrow at their home, the Larchwood, 5th street and Larchwood avenue. There will be 29 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore N. Pease, of 5809 Spruce street, are staying at the Traymore, Atlantic City. Mrs. Katherine A. Conneron announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Genevieve Conneron, to Dr. Lloyd William Johnson, of Milwaukee, on January 27. Mrs. H. H. Donaldson, of 319 Race street, will be at home on Monday afternoon, February 7 and 8, to introduce her niece and prospective daughter-in-law, Miss Dorothy Brace, to her friends.

Woodbury. Mrs. A. H. Reeve, of Moorestown, will address a meeting of the Woodbury Mothers' Club this evening. The subject of her lecture will be "The Sister-in-Law." Mrs. Eunice Campbell will be heard in several topical selections. A discussion of general topics will follow Mrs. Reeve's address. Mr. Horace Roberson, of Bayonne, spent the week-end here visiting several of his old friends.

The cozy new clubhouse of the Sewell Gun Club is completed and many visitors have been entertained there during the last few days. Several social events are planned for the near future, including a formal opening.

MISS SYLVIA LICHTENSTEIN. Miss Lichtenstein's engagement to Mr. Neil Ziedman, of this city, was announced on Sunday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lichtenstein, of 141 Pemberton street.

Along the Reading

The ninth annual meeting of the Men's Club of the Oak Lane Presbyterian Church will be held Friday evening at the church rooms, 11th street and Oak Lane. The speakers will be the Rev. F. J. Steinmetz and Judge W. W. Porter.

The next meeting of the Men's Club of Wyncope will be held in the parish house of All Hallow's Church Monday evening, February 7, at 8 o'clock. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. Michael Dorrington and his subject, "The Balkan Situation and the Present War."

Mrs. Alfred M. Duffey, of Old York road, Logan, entertained at dinner Saturday evening before the concert at Marshall Hall. Her guests included the members of the Adarian Quartet, Miss Margaret Goll, Miss Marion Fyre, Miss June Harmer, Mr. Joseph Barnes and Mr. Harry L. Grilith.

Miss Helen Vane Morris, of Oak Lane, has issued invitations for a dinner-dance tomorrow evening.

Mrs. George E. Mansfield, of Old York road, Logan, entertained at luncheon and cards yesterday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Josephine McCall, and Miss Freda McCall, who are visiting in this city. Covers were laid for 16 guests, and the house was decorated with early spring flowers.

A large party was given Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Billing, of 67th avenue, Oak Lane, to celebrate the anniversary of the K. K. G. Club, which is now two years old. Several addresses were made by Mrs. Walter Mann, Mrs. Alfred Kuntz, Mrs. George Lentz and Mrs. Frederick Billing. Among those present were Miss Anna Adolf, Miss Esther Dimthun, Miss Elizabeth Toes, Miss Belle Mason, Miss Freda Getzman, Miss Helen Dutton, Miss Martha Lester, Miss Aloysius Carr, Miss Helen Dinamore, Miss Marguerite Clark, Miss Marion Feltz, Miss Sarah Clark, Mrs. Walter Heckscher, Mrs. Joseph Meill, Mrs. Frank Cunningham, Mrs. John Frenfield, Mrs. James Fields and Mrs. Clarke Mason.

Mrs. Henry W. Wass, of Jenkintown, is spending some time at Asbury Park.

South Philadelphia

Mr. George W. Zeller entertained a number of friends at her home, 1714 Main street, on Saturday evening at a surprise party, in honor of Mrs. Thomas A. Hannon, a well-known South Philadelphia baritone. A capital musical program was contributed to by Miss Anna M. Rowe, Miss Mary Bernice Zeller, Mr. Hannon, Mr. M. Robinson, Mr. Richard Wagner, Mr. John Blumenthal, Mr. George W. Zeller and Mr. George W. Zeller, Jr.

Miss Emma Gillespie, formerly of South Philadelphia, now of Milford, Del., is spending the winter in Tampa, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawler, entertained informally on Saturday evening in honor of the third birthday of their little son, Thomas Lawler, at their home, 2502 South Croaskey street. About 16 little guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLaughlin, of 1432 South Broad street, entertained the members of her bridge club yesterday afternoon. Her guests included Mrs. George Donnelly, Mrs. Frank Stockley, Mrs. John K. May, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. George W. Young, Mrs. George Shuler, Mrs. Thomas Larkin, Mrs. Thomas Simmons, Mrs. Edward Hesse and Mrs. William V. Barnett.

Mrs. L. Moyd announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anna Moyd, to Mr. Samuel E. Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Banks, of 219 Moore street.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Farrell, of 2225 South Croaskey street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. Mrs. Farrell will be remembered as Miss Anna McKenna.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Baldwin, of 4216 Peachin street, will give an informal musicale tonight for the members of the Roxborough Thimble Club.

The annual supper of the Young Men's Bible class of Mount Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, Green Lane and St. David's street, will be given in the social hall of the church on Thursday night, February 17. The annual parish reception and informal dance of the members and friends of St. Timothy's Protestant Episcopal Church was held in the parish house on Friday evening.

Miss Celia Krane, of New York, will be the guest of Miss Dorothy Dorwart and Miss Esther Dorwart, of 4222 Ridge avenue, during the coming month.

Mrs. Robert Birkinne, of Ainslie street, Falls of Schuylkill, is visiting in Washington, D. C.

Delaware County

The Fidelity Players will present "All the Comforts of Home" in the Lancaster Firehouse on Friday. The play is under the direction of Miss Edith M. Keating. The proceeds will be given to the Episcopal Sunday School of Highland Park.

In Leisure Hours

Villa found time to marry his (third) wife, still there are many who work but eight hours a day and they cannot find time to go any further than the counting stage. Certainly there might be a different value standard of time in Mexico.

Mr. William Douglas, of 29th street and Girard avenue, has returned home after spending several days at Charlestown, Md.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. John's Community, No. 4, S. T., held a formal dance at the Hotel Walton Saturday evening. The patronesses included Mrs. William B. Bullitt, Mrs. N. N. Gill, Mrs. Lillian Thompson, Mrs. Archie Campbell, Mrs. G. E. Brown, Mrs. C. P. Pyle, Mrs. George Shaw, Mrs. A. Weckerly, Mrs. Charles Curran, Mrs. Charles Danenbauer and Mrs. Morse.

On Thursday night the Belmont Avenue Baptist Mandolin and Glee Club will give an entertainment in the Cookman Methodist Episcopal Church, Lehigh avenue and 14th street, for the benefit of the Sunday school.

At the meeting of the Twentieth Century Club of Lansdowne this afternoon there will be a discussion of "Present-day Magazines," led by Mrs. Seymour Eaton.

MRS. G. BRINTON LUCAS. Mrs. Lucas, who is a very popular young matron living at Rosemont, will leave this week for Bermuda. Mrs. Lucas, before her marriage several years ago, was Miss Adelaide Loughhead.

Chestnut Hill

Mr. and Mrs. John Strawbridge, of Hillcrest avenue, will give a dinner-tomorrow before the Fortnightly Dancing Class.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Barker Mellor, of St. Martin's, will also entertain at dinner before the dancing class.

Mrs. Boulton Earnshaw, of Montgomery avenue, will entertain at luncheon followed by bridge tomorrow. The guests will include Mrs. Wilson Potter, Mrs. Henry Erdman, Mrs. Frederick Simmon, Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Mrs. Stanley Easton, Miss Ethel Elliot and Miss Carrie Higgate.

A party for the members of the Children's Dancing Club, which will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. A number of guests have been invited. The patronesses include Mrs. M. C. Hannon, Mrs. George Donnelly and Mrs. Daniel Donoghue. The classes are directed by Miss Constance B. Taylor.

Members of the Stenton Country Club Dancing Class will have a special dance this evening. The membership list includes Mr. and Mrs. George Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Higgin, Mr. and Mrs. Ashton Tourison, Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Hannon, Mr. and Mrs. Wroe Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. James McArdie, Mr. and Mrs. G. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dechamps, Mrs. J. Y. Wilday and Miss Maizie Greenwood. About 20 guests have been invited.

Tioga

The fifth winter concert of the Tioga Choral Society will be given tonight in St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal Church, Broad and Venango streets. St. Julius Benedict's "Legend of St. Cecilia" will be sung with the following excellent artists taking solo parts: Miss May Ebbey Hotz, soprano; Mrs. Mabelle Cochran Addison, contralto; Mr. Henri Merriken, tenor; Mr. Donald V. Roebig, baritone; Mr. James H. Hartzell, of 1203 Pine street, is the musical director, and Mrs. E. J. B. Jones, of 4201 North 15th street, is secretary.

Mrs. Daniel Vinton Brown with her son and daughter-in-law—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew V. Brown, of West Tioga street—will leave for Florida during the week.

Mrs. Frank C. Fletcher, of 3542 North 18th street, entertained at luncheon today, her guests being Mrs. Laura Shinkler, Mrs. Frank Vanderherchen, Mrs. Max Maier, Mrs. Raymond Weckerly, Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Mrs. William Logan, Mrs. John Nuttal, Mrs. J. Rastine, Mrs. Charles Bonnell, Miss E. P. Palmer, and Mrs. E. G. Gay.

Miss Adeline Froelich, of 1251 West Allegheny avenue, entertained the card club of which she is a member at luncheon and cards on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Beckhardt, of 2320 West Tioga street, are spending some time in Atlantic City.

North Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. Evan T. Jones, of 202 North 22d street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marion Elizabeth Jones, to Mr. Louis F. Sommer, of New York. The ceremony took place in New York city on January 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker have returned to their home in Atlantic City after spending several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rowley, of 184 North Grant street.

Mr. William Douglas, of 29th street and Girard avenue, has returned home after spending several days at Charlestown, Md.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. John's Community, No. 4, S. T., held a formal dance at the Hotel Walton Saturday evening. The patronesses included Mrs. William B. Bullitt, Mrs. N. N. Gill, Mrs. Lillian Thompson, Mrs. Archie Campbell, Mrs. G. E. Brown, Mrs. C. P. Pyle, Mrs. George Shaw, Mrs. A. Weckerly, Mrs. Charles Curran, Mrs. Charles Danenbauer and Mrs. Morse.

On Thursday night the Belmont Avenue Baptist Mandolin and Glee Club will give an entertainment in the Cookman Methodist Episcopal Church, Lehigh avenue and 14th street, for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Northeast Philadelphia

Miss Myrtle Doer, of North 15th street, is the guest of Miss Irene Miller, of Scranton, Pa.

Miss A. Levitt entertained the members of the Auxiliary of the Northeastern Ladies' Benevolent Society at their home 2022 North 17th street, on Saturday in honor of her coming marriage on February 8, after which she will make her home in Pockontas, Va. Those present were Miss Nan Cohen, Miss Sarah R. Tolman, Miss Kibby Freedman, Miss Frances Kiskaly, Miss Jennie Stevens, Mrs. Nathaniel Klattis, Mrs. Joseph Ideil, Miss Florence Waldman, Miss Jean Smith, Miss Rose Metzner, Miss Rose Seligson, Miss Mary Soller, Miss Lenora V. Soller, Miss Katherine Hirschen, Miss Augusta Royer, Miss Sarah Bogatin, Miss Ida Lichtenstein, Miss Jennie Greenberg, Miss Anna Levitt, Miss Sarah Bogatin and Miss Irene Lapina.

MME. HASSLER-FOX OFFERS VARIED SONG PROGRAM

Contralto Includes American Composers in Her Representative List. Rozina Hassler-Fox, daughter of Mark Hassler, the well-remembered bandmaster, gave a recital under the competent local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form; a French group of idyllic and sentimental pieces and a brace of lyrics, set to music by American composers, which local direction of Helen Pulaski Innes last night in Witherspoon Hall. An encouragingly large audience, which made one recall the time when recitals of merit were assured of local patronage, heard the contralto sing a varied representative program which traversed the old Italian of Rossini in "Ah Rendimi l'Alfano" (1839); the German romanticism of the classics of time though not of form